The Honorable Walter E. Black, Jr.
Senior United States District Judge
United States District Court for the District of Maryland
101 West Lombard Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201RE: Grandison v. Lanham, et al., Civil No. B-94-204

Dear Judge Black:

Please allow this letter to serve as the parties' joint request for an extension of the scheduling order by one month.

The parties are asking for an additional month due to difficulties in the scheduling of a deposition. We had arranged to depose Warden Corcoran of the Maryland Correctional Adjustment Center at the prison on April 5, 2000, but the one room that would have allowed the Plaintiff to attend the deposition was not available on that date. We have rescheduled Warden Corcoran's deposition for May 17, 2000.

The current date for completion of discovery is April 17, 2000. The current date for serving requests for admission is April 20, 2000. The current date for filing potentially dispositive pretrial motions is May 17, 2000. The parties propose that discovery be completed on May 17, 2000, that requests for admission be served by May 20, 2000, and that any potentially dispositive pretrial motions be filed by June 16, 2000.

Request Granted this 7th day of April, 2000.WALTER E. BLACK, JR.
SENIOR JUDGE
